

10 December 1981

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of European Analysis, NFAC

FROM:

Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT:

Aid to Poland

l. Thanks for your note on the Polish matter. It was agreed to provide $100 million in corn on CCC financing. The more extensive financial assistance was deferred until a joint State/Treasury paper is prepared.

2. In preparation for that, we should get the facts straight on Soviet assistance and probable Polish financial requirements,

| 1. Action Requested; None; for information only.   | 25X1           |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| 2. Background: We understand that you do not require detailed comments on the discussion paper, apparently prepared by the State Department. You have, in any case, the two papers we produced—for the Secretary of State and for the NSC staff—on Polish aid requirements and on what aid can realistically be expected to accomplish.  | 25X1           |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| 3. We would simply point out at this point that the discussion paperbecause it does not seriously address Poland's long term aid requirements, expects too much from economic reform, and exaggerates the costs to the West of a Soviet military interventiontherefore probably tilts somewhat towards justification of an aid program. It also contains a number of factual errorse.g. on Soviet hard |                |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| currency assistance and on Solidarity's role in aid distribution.  | _25X1          |  |  |  |  |  |  |
